Testimonials

"I cannot say enough good things about the DealCatalyst SLF conference on Monday - it was an awesome mix of investors and originators in the specialty lending space. It was great to catch up with existing colleagues and make new connections.

I give it a 4 and 7/8ths stars - if you could have held back the rain it would have been a 5 out of 5."

Paul Mangione, Founder, Fort Schuyler Capital

"After engaging in conversations with numerous attendees, it is evident that the event was an unequivocal success. It brought to mind the days of commercial paper conferences, where a close-knit audience gathered around a specific topic, fostering a robust sense of community that frequently led to collaborative endeavors. The panels and networking sessions were exceptional, offering invaluable opportunities for engagement and the exchange of knowledge."
